

House Resolution No. 2208

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the Raytown C-2 School District, which will commemorate the splendid occasion of its One Hundredth Anniversary on May 8, 2004; and

Whereas, the Raytown C-2 School District Centennial Celebration will have a school carnival theme and will feature a cakewalk, fish pond, cotton candy, historical school displays, alumni basketball and volleyball games, and a centennial and video book sale; and

Whereas, the Raytown C-2 School District was the second consolidation of schools in the state of Missouri after the state legislature passed an act which allowed the consolidation of rural school districts in 1901; and

Whereas, these seven rural school districts included Bennington, Central, Chapel, Lane, Parkview, Spring Valley, and Stormy Point; and

Whereas, the Raytown C-2 School District graduated its first class in 1907 with a total of twelve graduates; and

Whereas, throughout its rich history, the Raytown C-2 School District has received the tremendous leadership and guidance of eight distinguished superintendents; and

Whereas, the Raytown C-2 School District now has nine elementary, two middle, and two senior high schools, and an area vocational technical school and a school for challenged students which are hosted by the Raytown District; and

Whereas, the Raytown C-2 School District is currently the largest metropolitan district to be Accredited with Distinction for High Performance in its last MSIP visitation:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and best wishes to all those dedicated individuals affiliated with the Raytown C-2 School District upon this very special anniversary event; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Raytown C-2 School District.
